

SEATTLE STUDY CLUB® JOURNAL

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

A Little Work Can Lead to Big Rewards

Our authors continue to inspire us and are an integral part of the Seattle Study Club family. We're always looking for contributions to our Seattle Study Club Journal, and we'd love to share your expertise with club members around the world. Plus, we'll reward you for your efforts! Learn more below about the types of content we're looking for and how to submit a case or an article for review.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR

- Comprehensive Case Studies
- Localized Area Special Reports (typically a single-tooth issue)
- Articles about practice management, health/medicine, how-to stories, financial or economic articles of interest, or unique club stories
- Video sharing a tip or inspiration

WHAT DO I SUBMIT?

- Written article or case documentation and photos
- Videos to support

NOTE: Any of the above content types can be submitted as a video—video submissions must include a video trailer/synopsis outlining the main points

WHAT'S THE DEADLINE?

Our call of submissions is open year-round.

COMPENSATION

Checks will be issued for accepted submissions. Accepted articles/videos may or may not be published.

- $2000
Comprehensive Case Study (unlimited submissions)
- $1000
Special Case Report (limited to 2 approved per person)
- $200
Article (limited to 2 approved per person)
- $100
Video (limited to 2 approved per person)

THE PROCESS

- Scan the QR code or visit seattlestudyclubjournal.com/contribute
- Select the type of content and submit documents and materials for our team will review.
- We'll send a release form authorizing our use of the materials and a check will be issued once we receive your W-9.
- If your submission is not accepted, we'll explain why and will determine if your submission can be used for something else that could still result in payment.

